

With the UK government offering “unequivocal support” for Israel’s horrific attack on Gaza – and the Labour leadership not far behind it – it’s critical that MPs’ inboxes are flooded with voices opposing war crimes and supporting a just peace.

Please take 1 minute to send a message to your MP, urging them to call publicly for an immediate ceasefire, to protect all civilians in Gaza from forcible transfer and to hold Israel accountable to its obligations under international law.

PALESTINE SOLIDARITY CAMPAIGN

In 1969 mobilised public opinion was a key factor in US President Nixon’s decision not to drop an atomic bomb on North Vietnam. In 2003 the UK anti-war movement came very close to halting British participation in the invasion of Iraq – which could have derailed the war entirely.

The historical record shows that grassroots action can play a critical role in preventing or limiting atrocities: tinyurl.com/preventatrocities
